

Wesley Lee McDonald, Class of 1942 (President I think), rose to the rank of admiral in the US Navy. At one time he was commander of the carrier USS Coral Sea, named after the Battle of the Coral Sea fought in May 1942.

Many Years later, Jean Sadler Surgi, niece of Sally Loving married Bill Surgi, who had been a member of the VF-42 Squadron aboard the carrier USS Yorktown in the Battle of the Coral Sea and who started a veterans' reunion group, the Battle of the Coral Sea Association, in 1969.

In 1978, Adm. McDonald was the speaker at a reunion of the Association in Washington DC and Miss Loving was in the audience. The pictures are of the Admiral with Jean and Bill Surgi and with Sally Loving.
